THE CORPORATE COUNCIL ON AFRICA AND DAVID FROST WINES HOST A GOLF TOURNAMENT TO FIGHT HIV/AIDS IN AFRICA

Join PGA Tour Winner David Frost and Members of the Business Community in a Charity Golf Event to Raise Awareness and Funding to Advance Business Involvement in the Fight Against HIV/AIDS in Africa

DATE: Wednesday, November 10, 2004

PLACE: Bayonet Blackhorse Country Club
Bayonet Course (PGA Qualifying Course)
Seaside at Monterey Bay, California
www.bayonetblackhorse.com

Help support this enjoyable event, which has been organized by the Corporate Council on Africa and hosted by David Frost Wines, to increase the awareness and involvement of the business community in efforts to stem the devastating effects of the HIV/AIDS pandemic in Africa. Funding from the event will be used to match grant funding provided by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation to the Corporate Council on Africa (a 501c3 not-for-profit organization) to work with companies on HIV/AIDS workplace policies and to increase corporate participation in national HIV/AIDS strategic planning commissions.

Registration Fee (per player): $200
(includes green and cart fees, box lunch, post-tournament reception)

Interested sponsors, who will be offered an opportunity to play with David Frost, should contact The Corporate Council on Africa at cca@africacncl.org or 202-835-1115.

This event has been planned to coincide with CCA's U.S.-Africa Agribusiness Conference, Monterey, California, November 7-10, 2004 (see www.africacncl.org for details) but is open to all interested companies and individuals.
